

Application for Compassionate Consideration for Withdrawal or Transfer

Domestic and International Students

You may apply for Compassionate Consideration on a range of medical/psychological or compassionate grounds where you experience significant, unexpected or extenuating circumstances which prevent you from continuing all or part of your programme of study.

Family Name	<input type="text"/>	Given names	<input type="text"/>
Student number	<input type="text"/>	Contact number	<input type="text"/>
Date of Birth	<input type="text"/>	Email address	<input type="text"/>

Instructions

1 List the course/s for which you are seeking Compassionate Consideration (Section A).

2 Give the reason for your Compassionate Consideration (Section B).

Complete either:

- Part 1 for Medical Grounds; or
- Part 2 for Non-Medical Grounds

3 Sign the student declaration (Section C).

4 Supporting Documentation:

If applying on medical/psychological grounds you must ensure that, the Health Professional's Statement in section B (part 1) of this form is completed. If this form is submitted separately, it must be received no later than one month from the date of the application. The application will not be considered in its absence.

If applying on non-medical grounds other acceptable documents may include a death notice/certificate or police report. Certificates signed by family members or persons residing in the same household, as you are not acceptable.

All supporting documentation must be written in English or be accompanied by a certified English translation.

5 Timeframe for Compassionate Consideration:

Applications must be lodged within the current calendar year of the enrolment for which the Compassionate Consideration is being requested.

You will be advised in writing of the decision within one month of the date that all relevant documentation has been received. You have the right to appeal if you do not agree with the decision. The appeal must be made in writing within two months of the date of notification of the decision, and addressed to the Chief Financial Officer.

6 Notes:

A compassionate withdrawal will be assessed against APP514 Withdrawals, Refunds and Compassionate Consideration policy.

If a compassionate withdrawal is approved for the period between the last withdrawal date (LWD) and prior to the last 20% of the course, then an academic result of withdrawn (WD) will be given.

7 Submitting the Completed Form:

Email your completed form and supporting documents to CompassionateApplications@ara.ac.nz or deliver to N118 Academic Records reception (in an envelope addressed to Compassionate Applications, c/- Registry Manager).

Section A: Courses

Please complete the table below with a list of the course/s for which you are seeking a compassionate refund

Course Code (e.g. ABCD100 08X)	Start Date	Finish Date	Last attendance date

- Please note that withdrawal from this course/these courses may affect your eligibility for benefits including loans, allowances and living costs. Please check with StudyLink for information.
- Any refund approved will be applied against any outstanding fees and any remainder will be refunded back to the original payer.

Section B: Medical or Health Grounds

Impact Assessment Statement by Registered Practitioner

Compassionate Consideration is made on the basis of evidence of severe illness, injury or accident which have severely affected your ability to continue to study. Severe impacts may include a serious illness or psychological condition.

Note: If your claim is based on medical or health grounds, the section below must be authorised for completion by you and then completed in full by a health professional. The application will not be considered if there is required detail missing. A medical certificate on its own is not sufficient.

Part 1 – Medical Grounds

I authorise my health professional to disclose personal health information to the Head of Department and/or the Registry Manager, of Ara Institute of Canterbury Ltd for the purpose of considering my application for compassionate consideration.
